

Schooner Manitou Visits Mackinac Island

The Schooner Manitou docked on Arnold Line's Yoder Dock over the weekend. With two masts reaching 80 feet, it towered over the public marina. The 114-foot replica of an 1800s cargo ship was specifically built for passengers and was sold for two voyages Sunday, June 12. More than 80 people sailed on the ship. Others shared the experience by touring the ship at the dock. Here, Manitou rounds the bend at Windermere Point during its first voyage.

Library Book Sale Raises $812

Chelsea Storms (left) of Clio and Joan Zak of Novi escape the nasty weather of Saturday afternoon by looking through books at the Mackinac Island Public Library's annual book sale. Both were here for the weekend; Ms. Storms ran in the race earlier in the morning and Ms. Zak got engaged on the porch of Grand Hotel. The sale raised $812 to buy new books for the Library.

Excitement Builds for 6th Potter Book

"Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince" is nearing its release date and Island Bookstore is prepared for the magical event. The store will be open at midnight July 16 to give away pre-ordered books and sell new ones. All those who pre-ordered a book will receive a free Harry Potter totebag. The store will also have refreshments and giveaways.

Written by British author J.K. Rowling, the book is one of the most-anticipated releases of the summer. In July 2003, when the fifth installment of the Harry Potter series reached shelves, more than 100 people attended the Island Bookstore celebration.

Island Stores Vie for Lilac Acclaim

For over 20 years, Island stores have been given a challenge during lilac festival to create the most lilac inspired window to fit with that year's theme.

This year, the theme is the Lilac Fairy, based on Victorian literature and stores are going all out to have the most festive window.

According to Tourism Bureau Director Mary Slevin, 15 to 20 stores take part in the contest each year.

Buzz Waggoner, who owns La Galerie on Market Street, said that he has been decorating his store window for 13 seasons. "It's just fun to do," he said, and he and his staff love the feedback they get from shoppers.

Everyone is welcome to pick their favorite window. Judging forms can be picked up at the Tourism Bureau on Main Street.

The votes will be tallied, and the store with the winning window will be notified on June 18.

In addition, all voters will be entered into a drawing for accommodations for two nights on Mackinac Island, two Mackinac Island Carriage Tour tickets, and two Arnold Line Ferry tickets for the 2006 season in gratitude for their participation and their lilac spirit.

Soccer Camps To Be Offered meeting, members discussed plans to paint the storage sheds and concession stand at Great Turtle Park. Board Member Barb Fisher said that the Lutheran District Gathering 2005 that will be coming to the Island at the end of this month will be on hand to help with the painting.

The board also has plans to seal from moisture the score board and deck at Great Turtle Park and hopes to run a power and phone line to the concession stand.

The Recreation Department board approved lending two sets of portable benches from the soccer field to the Tourism Bureau for use at the Dog and Pony Show.
