

Dusty The Delivery Horse

who grew up on Mackinac and is the son of Linda and Joe Horn, has worked for UPS for nine years.

In the past, he has delivered packages by cart, bike, and dray. Robert has been reared around horses on the Island. He doesn't seem to mind the change this summer of adding Dusty and Sam to the program, they just don't get to wear a UPS brown uniform like he does.

At any rate, Dusty is doing his duty and is a credit to the job. He is a sweet horse and he has proven himself to be a trooper during our very hot and busy summer days.

Candice Dunnigan is an active member of the American Equestrian Association, the Waterloo Hunt, and the Mackinac Island Horsemen's Association. Seasonally she resides at Donnybrook and Easterly Cottage.

NEWS ABOUT PEOPLE ON MACKINAC ISLAND

On Tuesday morning, July 26, we received a small amount of rain during the night. Early that morning the firemen responded to a campfire on one of the paths in the woods, which was promptly extinguished. Fire Chief Dennis Bradley had issued a no burn order that has been obeyed very well.

Monday, July 25, I received sad news from the family of Reta Sanders of Winnipeg, Manitoba. Reta was a very kind, caring lady who spent many years on the Island with the Moral Re-armament group. She loved life and all that it had to offer. Her very personal friend was the late Agnes Shine. Reta passed away Thursday, July 7. She was born in 1914. Reta's enthusiasm for life was everlasting. Island friends send their deepest sympathy.

Another special friend, Captain Paul Allers, will be celebrating his birthday July 30. His gift this year is a beautiful new granddaughter, Haley Nicole, who was born to Janet and Preston Allers July 18. Have a wonderful day, Paul, which you richly deserve.

Another good friend, Max Clifton of Muncie, Indiana, will be celebrating his birthday July 29 and we wish him the best ever.

Dillion Szabo and John Andress celebrated their second birthdays Saturday, July 23. A family cookout was held at the Szabo residence in Harrisonville.

Friday, July 22, Jack Ryerse visited Mackinac and treated all the First National Bank employees to breakfast at Jessie's Chuckwagon. Good to have you back on the Island, Jack.

Jennie Shanku and Jason St. Onge attended a bridal party in Detroit over the weekend.

Over the past weekend in St. Ignace, the LaPine and Horn families held a family reunion. People came from far and near to join in the fun, especially Lyle Horn and his daughter and son from Denver, Colorado. Everyone had a great time.

Happy birthday to Sandy Roe July 27. Have a great day!

A pink and blue shower honoring Nicole Hahn was enjoyed Sunday, July 24, at the Lake View Hotel conference room. Hostesses were Davina, Cathleen, Cathy, Becky and Jennie. Nicole received many useful and beautiful gifts.

Trillium Heights annual bike art "near" the park. What is it? As a follow-up to their successful "grinder art near the park," this year the residents of Trillium Heights are sponsoring a neighborhood bike art near the park.

A neighborhood picnic will follow a bike parade and the judging of contestants. Rain or shine, it will be held Sunday, August 14, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. All art lovers are invited and urged to attend and to decorate one or more bicycles. No professional assistance allowed. To enter, call Patrick Shannon at 847-8139 by Saturday, August 6. All proceeds raised will be donated to Great Turtle Park.

Enjoy and hope for cooler weather.
