

NEWS ABOUT PEOPLE ON MACKINAC ISLAND

Continued from page 7*

Best wishes from your friends on Mackinac.

Congratulations to Chris and Cathy Szabo on the birth of their daughter, Dayna Lark, born Sunday, May 7, at 9:25 a.m. at Northern Michigan Hospital in Petoskey. Dayna weighed six pounds, one ounce, and measured 16 inches in length at birth. She is joined at home by her big brother, Dillon. Proud grandparents are Pete and Marilyn Szabo of Chicago, Illinois, and Carlton and Pam Crocker of Cape Cod, Massachusetts. Best wishes from Island friends.

Piper Briton St. Onge, weighing eight pounds, three ounces, joined his big brother, Brevin, Friday, May 5. He is the son of Eric and Jill St. Onge of St. Louis. Proud grandparents are Glen and Deanna St. Onge of Mackinac and Remus. Uncle Jason and Aunt Jennie St. Onge are very proud of their new nephew. Best wishes to the happy family.

Mellie Alford Hagenbaugh and Franc Doud will celebrate their birthdays May 16. Have a great day.

Tom Corrigan of Glenview, Illinois, spent the weekend on Mackinac at his Bogan Cottage. It has been undergoing renovations. The cottage is on Lakeshore Drive with a magnificent view of the Straits of Mackinac.

Students home for the summer are Jill Kamphuis and Roxanne Pettit from Grand Valley State University and Lake Sweet from Albion College.

Arthur and Rebecca Armour are the proud parents of a new son, Samuel Arthur, who was born Friday, April 7, weighing seven pounds, one ounce. Congratulations to Rebecca and Arthur from Island friends and to the very proud grandparents, Grace and Dr. David Armour. Dave and Grace are on Mackinac visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Anneke and Matt Myers.

The spring flowers at Mission Point Resort are in full bloom, making a breathtaking sight of a variety of colored daffodils and tulips. It's a very beautiful area to view when taking a walk.

Our neighbors, Marvin and Christy May, have arrived at their home on Cadotte Avenue. They spend the winter in Petoskey and Florida. They will be joined soon by their daughters and son, who will help in the operation of May's Candy Shops.

The lawn in Marquette Park is a beautiful green, making the area look like a velvet carpet.

Diane and Ken Neyer of Traverse City were here over the weekend working at Metivier Inn and Hart's Haven.

Mike Corrigan arrived Monday to enjoy a few days at his cottage on Mahoney Avenue.

Along the roadside and in the wooded areas of our lovely Island, you will find the tiny hepaticas blooming in shades of white, pink, and purple, more commonly known as mayflowers. They're delicate and very sweet.

Saturday, April 8, and Sunday, April 9, Amelia and Dan Musser attended the Saginaw Valley Kennel Club Dog Show, where three of their puppies, their first show, were entered on Saturday. Their Scottie called "Sadie" won Group I, Best Terrier in the Show. Their Wire Hair Fox Terrier "Toots" won the breed (Best Fox Terrier) and Group III. On Sunday, their Fox Terrier named "Ace" won the Best in Breed and Group I. Congratulations to the Mussers on a wonderful weekend at the Saginaw Valley Kennel Club Dog Show. The three dogs were born and raised in the Musser's Roundtown Kennel in Laingsburg.

Attorney John Murray Dennany of Gaylord was seen enjoying dinner at The Gate House Saturday evening.

We send greetings and best wishes to our Island friends, Theresa Bazinaw, Letha Brodeur, Bette Emmons, and Gary and Larry LaPine, who are patients at Mackinac Straits Hospital's long term care facility in St. Ignace.

The Michigan State Police

Post in St. Ignace has a new member, Maxen Michael Powell, son of Sgt. Mike and Jennifer Powell, who was born Friday, April 28, weighing nine pounds, four ounces. Maxen is joined at home by his big brother, Owen James. Congratulations to Mike and Jennifer from Island friends. Hope to see you on Mackinac this summer.

Welcome back to Mackinac, Pete and Sonya La Pin, who work for Mackinac Island Carriage Tours. Nice to have you back on the Island.

Congratulations and best wishes to Dr. Justin Hollander of Traverse City, who received his D.O. medical degree from Michigan State University Thursday, May 4. Dr. Hollander is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hollander and the brother of Jennifer Blosswick. Jennifer and Frank joined the family on this joyous occasion. Dr. Hollander is an orthopedic surgeon. He worked several summers on Mackinac.

The Michael Straus family spent the weekend at their cottage in Hubbard's Annex. They enjoyed spring on Mackinac.

A familiar figure back for another season is Lazal Roberts, who drives Grand Hotel's supply dray. Nice to have you back.

Ethan Nicholas Chambers arrived Saturday, April 1, weighing seven pounds, five ounces. He is the son of James T. and Kristie Lynne Chambers of Sault Ste. Marie and Mackinac. Congratulations to Kristie and James. Very proud grandparents are the Ken Kavanaughs of Sault Ste. Marie and James P. Chambers and the late Barbara Chambers of Mackinac. Best wishes to the happy family.

Happy Mother's Day.

BORN Kathryn Burt

April 12, 2006

A daughter, Kathryn Cristina Burt, was born to Liz and Allen Burt of Mackinac Island April 12, 2006, 9:35 a.m. at Northern Michigan Hospital in Petoskey. She weighed eight pounds, five ounces and measured 20.5 inches in length.

Grandparents are Jack and Cristina Staats of Boyne City and Dick and Janet Burt of Bedford, Indiana. Her great-grandmother is Mary McNair of Petoskey.

Kathryn, or Katie as she'll be called, was named after her aunt Kathryn and her grandma Cristina. She has a 19-month-old brother, Sean.

Kathryn Burt

Get the signal.™

Limited Time Offer

MOTOROLA RAZR

$49.99

After Mail-in Rebate
With new two year contract

Get an Unlimited Plan for $50!

Prepay available with International calling.

Only available at Doud's Mercantile

CELLULARONE
from Dobson Cellular Systems