

NEWS ABOUT PEOPLE ON MACKINAC ISLAND

Wednesday, June 27, for their home in Arcade, New York. They've enjoyed a month at the Bourisaw Cottage on Bourisaw Lane. The Bourisaw family is one of the oldest families on Mackinac.

Seeing Doud's Market delivery wagon in the Lilac Parade brought to mind a story of long ago. My late husband, Robert, was a delivery boy for his father, James. The old white horse was hitched to a colorful Doud Mercantile wagon. This day it was Robert's duty to be on the early run to visit the cottagers and take the orders of the day. Years ago there was competition in the grocery business, between Doud Mercantile and the J.W. Davis store. This day Robert stopped at the Milton Tootle cottage, and was told by the cook that he was late and she had given her order to the Davis store. Needless to say, he was sad. As he was about to leave, a very sweet, soft-spoken lady, Mrs. Tootle, called to him. She said, "Good morning, Robert," and invited him to sit down because she wanted to give him an order. He often said that it was so large that he almost had writer's cramp. Just a happy ending to a story many years ago.

Brother Jim Boynton will soon arrive and will spend the month of July and part of August helping at Ste. Anne's. Happy birthday to Brother Jim July 3. Have a great day.

Lenny McCabe and his family will arrive Sunday, July 22, to visit Karen McCabe at her cottage at British Landing.

The past weekend was so beautiful, with weather we will always remember. It was picture-perfect, warm, sunny, and comfortable. At least 13 brides chose Mackinac for their wedding day. Services were held in the various churches and outside on the lawns of hotels. The wedding carriages were kept busy getting the happy brides to their weddings on time. It truly was like a storybook to see the brides with their flowing gowns happily riding by.

Our Mackinac Island Medical Center was kept very busy over the weekend, treating patients who had various accidents. We are fortunate to have a skilled medical team.

Assisting Father Rey Garcia with the summer Masses at Ste. Anne's is Father Reno, a Jesuit from Madagascar. We give him a warm welcome.

My good friends, Father Fred Hoseli and his sister, Mary, recently paid a visit to Mackinac. It was nice to see them again.

Jody and Mark Chambers hosted a family reunion at their Gatehouse in Stonecliffe. Relatives came from Arizona, North Carolina, Nevada, Colorado, and Clark Lake. A fun time was enjoyed by all. The family was joined by Jody's father, Dick Johnson.

Members of the Goodwin family are enjoying their beautiful West Bluff cottage. It's nice to see them back on Mackinac.

Last week, I was invited by Buck and Alice Sharrow to go on a scenic carriage ride with them around the Island. The day was perfect, the company the best, and the scenery picturesque and beautiful. Charlie and Willie were the handsome hackney team that answered to all of Buck's commands. What fun and relaxation we all enjoyed. The drive took us in front of Grand Hotel with its wonderful gardens. Next came the West Bluff cottages with their magnificent view of the Straits of Mackinac, then the lovely homes in Hubbard's Annex with their colorful gardens. We drove through Woodbluff and Stonecliffe Manor, and the area was blanketed with wild daisies and yellow buttercups. Down Forest

Way to Lakeshore Drive, we saw all of the homes in Stonebrook. It was a wonderful ride. I appreciated the thoughtfulness of my good friends, Alice and Buck, for a wonderful day. Even though we live here year-around, we never get tired of its beauty.

Happy Fourth of July!
