

NEWS ABOUT PEOPLE ON MACKINAC ISLAND

Bloomfield Hills was enough. Welcome to Mackinac to the Davey family, who first came when John and his brothers and sisters were small children. Their cottage then was at the Mission.

Happy birthday July 10 to Mary Rogers and Jack Dehring III. Enjoy your day.

Paul Fullerton of Great Lakes Air celebrated his birthday June 29. Happy birthday, Paul, from Island friends.

Sunday, July 1, was a very busy day on the Island. It was Canada Day, and many Canadians visited our Island, enjoying browsing in the many shops.

Monday, July 2, while in St. Ignace, I met still another friend, Marvin Winkelman, who for many years owned and operated Winkelman's Clothing Store on South State Street in St. Ignace. It carried fine merchandise, and it was a great store to do Christmas shopping. I was so pleased to have a nice visit with him.

Our good friend, Mary Jane Neuman of Royal Oak, a guest of Windermere Hotel, celebrated her 80th birthday June 28. She and I attended Grand Hotel's orchestra concert at Ste. Anne's Sunday, July 1, which was most enjoyable.

The good news this week is that Dr. Chris LaTocha has been released from the University of Chicago Hospital. He is staying with family in Chicago for several months. Island friends are pleased that you're making such a great recovery, Chris.

A summer cottager of the East Bluff, Ann Levy, had the misfortune of falling from her horse Friday, June 29. Best wishes for a speedy recovery.

A reception for artist John Manikoff, and a showing of his paintings, was enjoyed by many Saturday, June 30. His paintings are on display at the Mackinac Island Public Library for the month of July.

It was nice to see Mary and Cal Rogers, when they visited their Island family, the Mike Carleys, this past week.

Guests of Joe Plaza over the past weekend were his son, Sam, who is a professor of history, civics, and government at Henry Ford Community College, and his daughter, Grace, who is a professor of languages at Henry Ford Community College. His son, John, is retired from IBM after 25 years. Nice to have you visit Mackinac.

A recent e-mail from Sara Bunker Sutherland from Orlando, Florida, tells us that she is thinking about everyone on Mackinac. She hopes to visit sometime this summer.

Brian Dunnigan and Sidney Klienhenz, granddaughter of Annette and Bob Gillespie, will both celebrate their birthdays July 11. Have a wonderful day.

Folks walking around in the evening have been treated to a beautiful sight, a full moon shining down on the Straits of Mackinac.

Dan and Diane Shea of Atlanta, Georgia, are enjoying their cottage in Hubbard's Annex.

The Tom Lewand family of Birmingham have been vacationing at their East Bluff cottage.

Doud's Market is going back to the tradition of delivery service, which dates back to 1884.

Spending the Fourth of July holiday with Jane Winston at
