

NEWS ABOUT PEOPLE ON MACKINAC ISLAND

BY JEANNETTE DOUD

Roe, who celebrated her 50th birthday July 27. Island friends send special wishes.

Island friends send deepest sympathy to Barbara Fisher, on the recent death of her sister, Kay Parks.

Bob and Lorraine O'Keefe of Oak Brook, Illinois, are vacationing at their lovely home in Woodbluff.

Happy birthday to Cal Rogers August 1, and to his grandson, Josh Carley, August 2. Have a great day.

Mark your calendar for the Mackinac Island Medical Center auction, which will be Sunday, August 24. Any donations will be appreciated. They may be dropped off at the Mackinac Island Medical Center.

Mary Jane Barnwell will celebrate her birthday August 2. Enjoy the day.

The Pat McTiques are enjoying their condominium in the Mission. Their grandchildren visited them last week and had a great time on Mackinac.

The Stuart House will hold an open house Friday, August 15, from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. There will be a silent auction and refreshments. Everyone is welcome.

Happy birthday to Margaret McIntire August 5. Have a wonderful day.

Guests of Rosie Charnes were her friends from Indianapolis, Indiana. Her late husband, Duke, named them the "Mackinac Mamas." The girls had a wonderful time dining out and shopping.

What a wonderful surprise Monday morning, July 28, to see fantastic photography of Mac-

Chicago.

Friday evening, July 25, a strange and sudden storm hit our area. High winds with fierce lightning and thunder came in the early hours of the evening.

Folks who were invited by Richard and Jane Manoogian to join them on their yacht, Lady Jane, had to remain moored to the dock owing to weather conditions. Following the storm, a magnificent rainbow in vibrant colors formed an arch over the Straits of Mackinac. It was absolutely an unbelievable sight. People were lined up and down Main Street and on the Arnold Dock to see it. It was truly a Mackinac scene.

Happy 31st anniversary to Dave and Susan Sanderson July 31. Enjoy your day.

An open house was held at Ste. Anne's Rectory Sunday, July 27, to benefit the restoration of the stained-glass windows at Ste. Anne's Church. Father Rey Garcia's gardens were just beautiful, as the guests mingled and bid on artwork at the silent auction table. The view from the rectory was magnificent, looking out at the harbor and the Old Round Island Lighthouse. It was a wonderful setting for a great gathering, to benefit a very worthy cause. Many thanks to everyone who attended, donated, and provided refreshments.

The Mark Chambers family left Friday, August 1, to spend the weekend in the windy city of Chicago.

Happy birthday to Sandy

Island residents and visitors join Brother Jim Boynton for square dancing Tuesday, July 15, on the porch at Ste. Anne's Church. Dancers of all ages can learn basic square dancing moves and dance to live music. Square dancing is offered every Tuesday at 7 p.m., rain or shine, and will continue into the month of August.

Dear Patti:
Forgive me for the personal greeting - it's because you have given me such excellent service for so many years now that I feel I know you - and because when one reaches 81 years, one tends to get sentimental.

Anyway, a check is enclosed for $100 to cover the following order. Please send one half pound slice of each flavor, as far as the money goes. If duplications are necessary, make them in the chocolate family.

Thank you very much,
Ron R. Sheldon
